Not happy, City of Karratha

Years ago you rode the boom and increased the rates via the value of housing GRV – fair enough
Now that housing value has gone down you increase rates again to fund your pie in the sky idea's

I own two properties in Karratha

We have rode the tough times after the last boom and now you slug us again

How about getting rid of the useless wood within your own departments now that your "expansion" is over
